

Capstone Project: Battle of The Neighborhoods Part 1

Business Problem

Calgary is a fast-growing city with many people moving there every year. Choosing a neighborhood to live in is a difficult task, one must weigh the cost of living versus the amenities available in the area. A potential client would like to buy a property in Calgary but is having a hard time figuring out what neighborhood would fit their needs best. We will consider their budget, along with the availability of amenities they need to figure out which neighborhoods would offer them the best quality of life.

Target Audience

Potential clients looking to buy a property in a neighborhood that closest fits their needs and their budget.
